approach

• college is
different
• you might
have more
exciting
experiences
• you'll have
more
control
& responsibility

pressure
to have
a routine
figured out
• All responsibilities
start at once
(ex. class, activities, sports)
• students expected
to manage
independently

To find
your relationship
immediately?
• other students
seem to form
friendships
quickly
• Meeting
does not necessarily
mean
close to
them

while still
learning how
• Taking time
to adjust
you feel
unhappy

(wondering
 what you
 think of
 the new
 environment
 and how
 it will affect you
 and your
 friends

Expectation that students should immediately
 adjust to the college
 life

Pressure

To find your
 education?
 • Other students
 groups
 quickly
 • Meeting
 automatically
 make you
 feel

Why does adjusting
 feel like something students need to accomplish immediately

How does comparing
 ourselves to others
 affect our sense of belonging?
